

Courier's Home Circle

Strength for today is all that we need. As there never will be a tomorrow. For tomorrow will be but another day with its own measure of joy and sorrow.

Strength for today, in house and home. To practice forbearance sweetly. To scatter kind words and loving deeds. Still trusting in God completely.

If there is one thing more than another that betrays a man's littleness or lack of raising, that thing is to give utterance to blood-curdling oaths on the street, regardless of who may be in hearing. Such performances strengthen the belief in the Darwinian theory without any very great advancement from the point of starting.

Did you every watch the operation of a loom in a woolen mill? So long as the operator attends closely to the work in hand all goes well, but if she pays too much attention to what her neighbor is doing, her work is likely to get "down" and "overshot" appear. So in our life weaving, many a "break" is made in the web simply from giving too much attention to the warp and woof of others' lives, and too little to our own.

THE WIFE.

A good wife is to a man wisdom and courage, strength, hope and endurance. A bad one is confusion, weakness, discomfiture and despair. No condition is hopeless when the wife possesses firmness, decision, energy and economy. There is no outward prosperity which can counteract indolence, folly, and extravagance at home. No spirit can long resist bad domestic influence. His home must be to him a place of repose, of cheerfulness, of comfort, and his soul renews its strength and again goes forth with fresh vigor, to encounter the labor and troubles of the world.

Every wedded pair might be happy did they but bear each other's burdens, and strive with half the zeal they sometimes exert to make each other miserable, to contribute to each other's mutual happiness.

Every farmer who provides himself with a beautiful home, surrounded by green lawns and winding paths, a well cultivated farm, and all that makes life pleasant, is a blessing to any neighborhood. Were there no tramps, no paupers, but if all classes could be induced by proper training to become self-reliant citizens, useful, first to themselves and indirectly to their fellows, by bearing each his share of the world's progress, the millennium would be on its way hither.

HOW TO MAKE A WIFE UNHAPPY.

See your wife as seldom as possible. If she is warm-hearted and cheerful in temper, or if, after a day's or a week's absence, she meets you with a smiling face and in an affectionate manner, be sure to look coldly upon her and answer her with monosyllables. If she forces back her tears and is resolved to look cheerful, sit down and gaze in her presence, till she is fully convinced of your indifference. Never think you have anything to do to make her happy, but that her happiness is to flow from gratifying your caprices; and when she has done all a woman can do, be sure you do not appear gratified. Never take an interest in any of her pursuits; and if she asks your advice, make her feel that she is troublesome and impertinent. If she attempts to rally you good-naturedly on any of your peculiarities, never join in the laugh but frown her into silence. If she has faults (which, without doubt she will have, and perhaps may be ignorant of) never attempt with kindness to correct them, but continually obtrude upon her ears: "What a good wife Mr. Smith has!" "How happy Mr. Smith is with his wife!" "Any man would be happy with such a wife!" In company never seem to know you have a wife. Treat all her remarks with indifference. Be very affable and complaisant to every other lady. If you follow these directions, you may be certain of an obedient and heart-broken wife.

FAULT-FINDING.

Don't get in the habit of it. It's the easiest thing to do and the hardest thing to stop in the wide, wide world. It ruins your temper and spoils the shape of your mouth. Try and see the good rather than the disagreeable in the people and your surroundings. You would not go to a friend's house and find fault with what she does and with what she has and her ways of living. What right have you, then, to find fault with those who are more than friends to you—the people of your own blood? If there is a grace that we all are stingy with, it is that of

Heart Strength

Heart strength, or Heart Weakness, means Nerve strength, or Nerve Weakness—nothing more. You live, not one weak heart in a hundred is, in itself, actually diseased. It is almost always a hidden tiny little nerve that really is all at fault. This obscure nerve—the Cardiac, or Heart Nerve—simply needs, and must have, more power, more stability, more controlling, more governing strength. Without that the Heart must continue to fail, and the stomach and kidneys also have these same controlling nerves.

This clearly explains why, as a medicine, Dr. Shoop's Restorative has in the past done so much for weak and ailing Hearts. Dr. Shoop first sought the cause of all this painful, palpitating, suffocating heart distress. Dr. Shoop's Restorative—this popular prescription—is alone directed to those weak and wasting nerve centers. It builds! It strengthens! It offers real, genuine heart help. If you would have strong Hearts, strong digestion, strengthen these nerves—re-establish them as needed, with giving praise, and yet it is one with which we ought to be lavish. Why should you tell your friend that her bonnet is unbecoming, and when you have never said this to your sister? Why should you go out to tea and praise your neighbor's muffins, when you have forgotten to tell mother how good hers were? Why should you announce how much Mr. Wilson over the way knows, when father is a great deal better informed man, it has never entered your little head to whisper quietly to him how much you appreciate his wisdom? You keep your ability to discover faults for the home while the eye that should look for virtues is closed tightly until you go out. Don't wait till some one is gone from you to tell their virtues. Don't wait until your sister is far away in another land to tell her how helpful, how pretty, or how, courteous she is; and don't wait until the long sleep comes before you make mother know what a beautiful blue are her eyes, how tender her heart, and how dearly you love her. Tell it all now—now, when the walk through life is hard, and the sunshine of praise is yearned for to brighten it, and to warm and encourage the pilgrim by the wayside.

Happy are they, whose names suggest gladness and brightness, whose presence acts as sunshine wherever they may move. Even those who are not joyful by nature may become thankful and bright by grace, and recommend that which is pure, good and lofty, by putting away murmurings, complaints and irritability. Think more of our preservations, our deliverances, and let bright hope buoy us above the sombre and unpleasant things of life, and our depression will be cured and the spirit of heaviness be replaced by the garment of praise.

For cuts, sprains, bruises, burns, rheumatic and all other pains, use McLean's Volcanic Oil Liniment. First sold in 1825, still the same effective remedy in 1908. Good for man or beast. 25c, 50c and $1.00.

Hogwallow Notes.

Sim Flinders has established a wonderful record by eating fourteen goose eggs at one setting.

Sometimes the "cream" of society rises from a low grade of blue-John milk.

Sim Flinders thinks he will put out a small patch of tobacco to pass off the time in this summer while learning to play the fiddle.

Notice—When having your picture made never move your head about, unless you especially desire moving pictures.

Miss Hostetter Hock laid her chewing gum down somewhere yesterday and a thorough search was instituted, but to no avail.

When writing to ladies you should always remove your hat.

A person cannot map out his future any more than the almanac can plan the weather.

Statistics show that more coal is consumed in winter than in summer.

To build up your town. There is so many ways to do this. One way is, have a good word for your town, never run it down. If it is not good enough to live in the sooner you get out of it the better for the town, never run it down. If it is not worthy of good words it is not good enough to live in and the sooner you get out of it the better for the town and yourself. Another way is to patronize home industries; this means, politely refuse to buy from catalogue houses and peddlers. The man who carries a few samples and calls at your door, as a rule, pays no taxes nor does he contribute to the churches. Did you ever think of this? The local business man is never missed when a subscription paper is passed around for some public enterprise. Neither does he fail to respond to the call. You only help him, and beside he always gives value received.

Good Judgement

is the essential characteristic of every woman. Invaluable to good business and necessary to housewives. A woman shows good judgement when she buys White's Cream Vermifuge for her baby. The best worm medicine ever offered mothers. Many indeed are the women mothers, who write expressing their gratitude for the good health of their children, which they owe to the use of White's Cream Vermifuge.
